

KEENE'S STABLE WINS A RACE.

First Success of the Season for the Famous "White, Blue Spots."

FAVORITES BOWLED OVER.

Father Bill's Arabian the Only First Choice to Land a Purse at Aqueduct.

NOSEY'S FINE PERFORMANCE.

He Makes Up a Lot of Ground in the Final Run and Wins in Decisive Style—Our Johnny in Front at 40 to 1.

Any one who visited Aqueduct yesterday with the idea of retrieving Monday's losses found a merry path, as the day's results were decidedly disappointing to those who make public form a basis of their calculation.

Arabian was the only favorite that succeeded in winning, and he was hardly a decisive choice, as the horses were on their way to the post for a start before his price entitled him to rate as such. Doggett had

TARAL TO RIDE HASTINGS.
The Famous Jockey Arrives at Morris Park Weighing 116 Pounds—Plenty of Training Work.

The Morris Park race track was full of life yesterday. It was not so much that the work of the horses was exceptional in speed, for the track rather antedated against fast going, but the appearance of new horses in prominent stables was sufficient to keep the interest from flagging. Superintendent Gorman was busy providing for new applicants for room. The jumping races were being looked after by the construction of hurdles and the tripping of obstacles.

At the island tracks there was less of general doling, although the horses were being sent to the post for a start before his price entitled him to rate as such. Doggett had

DECISION GIVEN TO SULLY SMITH.

Referee Roche Says Flaherty Had the Worst of the Broadway A. C. Fight.

TWO PRELIMINARY BOUTS.

Hopkins and Styles Box a Fake Draw and Smith Defeats Tim Kearns.

Sully Smith was given the decision over Martin Flaherty in a twenty-five round bout at the Broadway Athletic Club last night. The verdict of Referee Dick Roche was roundly lissed.

The opening bout introduced Joe Hopkins and Harry Strickland, both colored, in ten rounds at 126 pounds. They sprang at each other with great apparent ferocity, but for ten rounds neither landed a blow that caused any damage. It was an artistically executed fake, and both were evidently pleased with the verdict of drawn battle.

Jack Smith, formerly of Norfolk, Va., and Tim Kearns, of Lawrence, Mass., came out for ten rounds at 133 pounds. Smith is one of Jim Lavel's Bell street stable, and Kearns is a local fighter. They fought a hard battle, but Smith was the victor. The referee, Dick Roche, gave Smith the decision.

TURF DELINQUENTS TO BE "POSTED."

Jockey Club Will Print a Forfeit List in This Week's Racing Calendar.

SOME PROMINENT NAMES.

The List Would Have Been Published Last Year Except for Fear of Libel Suits.

The Racing Calendar of this week will depart from the usual more or less somnolent condition of peaceful placidity, and show a bombshell into the camp of turf men of the East and West. For the first time in the history of the American turf, the so-called forfeit list of the Jockey Club will be published in public form and not for private circulation, as in the past.

This list will contain the turf delinquents of the entire country for several years past, and on it will unquestionably be found many prominent owners and stables whose fortunes have been on the wane during the past few years of hard times, necessitating their complete retirement or the confinement of their racing operations to the West, where, under the rules of the American Turf Congress, the forfeit list of the Jockey Club can be defied with impunity.

The publication of this list was threatened by the Jockey Club a year or so ago, but the requisite nerve to carry the thing through has always been lacking in the past. The delay was partly due, in all probability, to the desire of the Jockey Club to antagonize as few turfmen as possible, and also to the fear of libel suits.

Owing to the recent victory of the Jockey Club in the courts, establishing the constitutionality of the Gray-Perry law, under which racing is conducted at present, thoroughbred sport is on a surer and sounder basis in this State than ever before, and the decision of the Jockey Club to publish the list must have been given largely through this fact and through the advice of the lawyers in their employ that such a publication could not be considered libelous.

For several years the English Jockey Club has published its forfeit list in their racing calendar, and a unit for it has never been brought against them, but the conditions governing the turf in America and in England are so different that the experiment of the Jockey Club will be watched with great interest.

SEND IN RENEWALS.
New York L. A. W. List Drops Because Members Are Somewhat Forgetful.

According to the figures furnished this week by Secretary Bassett, of the L. A. W., the membership of the New York State division has dropped to 19,907, in spite of the fact that 900 new names have been added to the list. This is explained by the fact that the renewal season under the old system is now in progress, and the delinquents are taking the limit of three June 1—in which to renew their membership. The present figures for the entire League are 74,145. Pennsylvania contributes 370 new members, and now has a total of 33,029, the large increase being due to the fact that the annual meet is scheduled for Philadelphia, New Jersey adds 71 to its list, making its membership 4,755. Massachusetts supplies 136 new ones, swelling its total to 9,523. Illinois shows an increase of 122, with a total of 3,042.

Chief Consul Kroker, of the New Jersey division, has appointed James Holmes, who once was a competent head of the Jersey division, as chairman of a hotel committee which will endeavor to arrange a system of hostels that will be satisfactory to home cyclists and those who venture into the land of good roads.

The Board of Consuls of the New York City Consulate, L. A. W., will hold a meeting to-night at the house of M. Sternberger, No. 117 West Seventy-fourth street, and important business will be considered.

Dixon and Walcott Challenge. Tom O'Rourke has challenged George Green (Young Corbett), on behalf of Joe Walcott, at 145 pounds, and Dal Hawkins, on behalf of George Dixon, at 128 pounds. If the challenges are accepted O'Rourke and his two colored boxers will start at once for the Pacific coast.
